

The Wildflowers Co.

2026-7 brochure

The Wildflowers Co is a mother-daughter studio founded by Amy and Gillian. Amy is a fully qualified Level 2 City & Guilds florist, with a love for natural movement, thoughtful colour palettes and flowers that feel effortlessly abundant. Gillian has been working with flowers for decades — long before Amy was born — bringing a wealth of experience and calm, steady hands to every wedding day.

The business was born after Amy's own wedding in 2022, when they created the flowers together and realised they were onto something special.

We specialise in wild, natural, romantic wedding florals — designed to feel seasonal, intentional and full of life.

We are fully insured and work across Yorkshire, designing from our Huddersfield studio.

Delivery is quoted based on location. On-the-day setup is £100, which includes installation, styling and collection of hired items after the event. For larger-scale weddings, an additional freelancer fee may apply.

To secure your date, a £200 booking fee is required, with the remaining balance due four weeks prior to your wedding. Full-service wedding floral design begins from £1,000.

Most couples invest between £1,200 – £4,000 depending on scale, guest numbers and floral choices.

In addition to fresh floral displays we also have the following items to hire for styling;

- range of candles
- table foliage
- bud vases
- wooden lanterns
- log slices
- wooden archway
- wooden crates
- fabric runner
- chair sashes

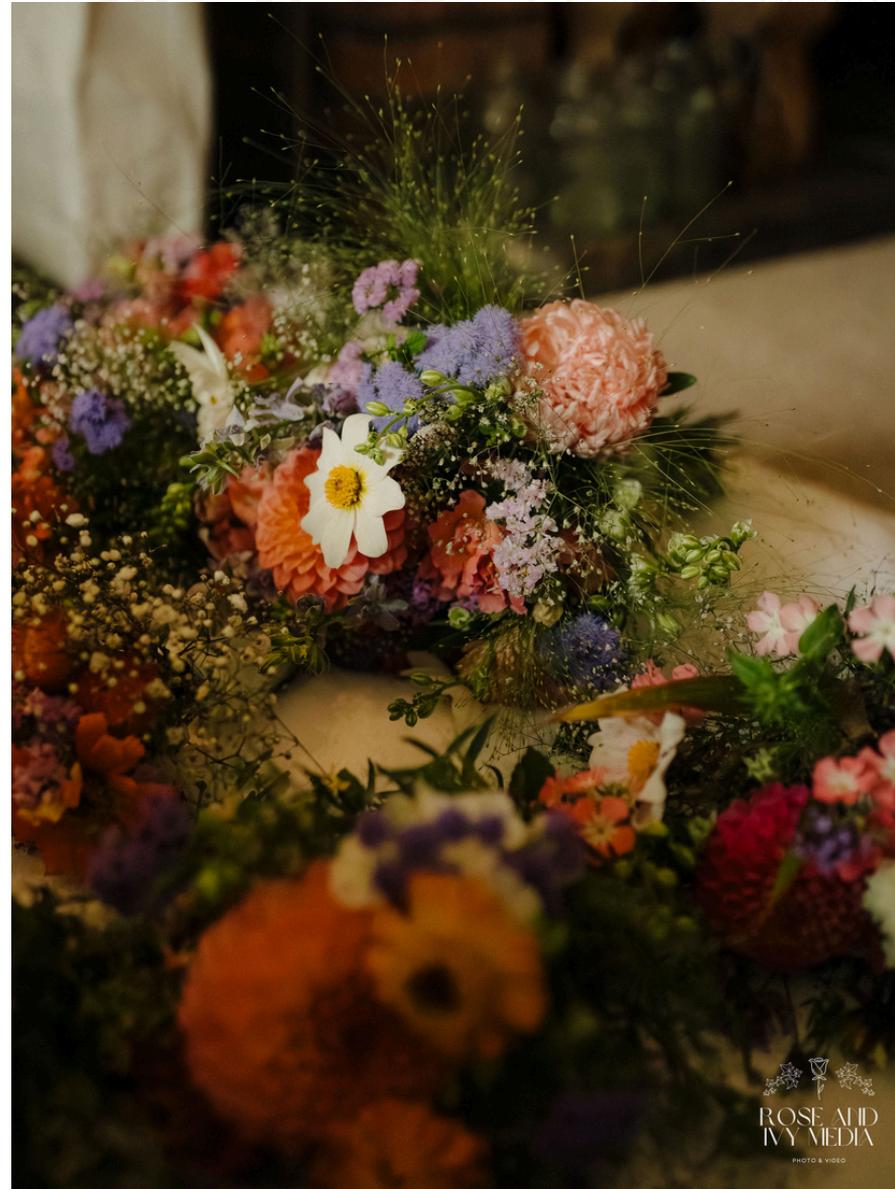

Intimate weddings

For smaller celebrations or couples who don't require full-service floral styling, I offer a limited number of collection-only wedding packages.

These are perfect for elopements, registry weddings or more intimate guest lists, and include beautifully designed personal flowers and selected pieces — ready for you to collect from my Huddersfield studio.

FAQ

How far in advance should I book a florist?

Most wedding suppliers will book clients 2 years in advance. The popular summer/autumn dates will book up quickly so if there's a supplier you really love, get them booked before someone else does! However if we are available we will be able to help you out - email us to check our availability.

How much should I budget for my flowers?

This all depends on how much of a floral impact you want your wedding to have; this is individual to each couple. If you want just personal flowers budget around 10%, ceremony florals 20% and a large impact 30-50%. Our average spend is £1200-£4000 for personal and ceremony florals.

Where are you based? Do you travel?

We're based in West Yorkshire but we absolutely can travel across the UK to deliver you beautiful wedding florals.

What happens to the flowers after the wedding?

The morning of the wedding your flower fairies will come and set everything up. Then the next day we will come and remove any items you've rented from us. We will dismantle any ceremony florals and leave you the flowers that are in good condition; some couples give these to guests, gift them to local nursing homes or place them on graves. Of course we can remove them if you're jetting off on your honeymoon!
